About Us

Hero: Our story

H1 - About Us

Down to your final quid? The obvious thing to do is to start making and selling delicious doughnuts. Well, that's what we did back in 2015 anyway.

John Simpson and Harriet Jones kicked things off in mum's kitchen with a tenner and a wok. Before they knew it, they had themselves a micro-bakery and their own coffee and doughnut shop in Manchester.

We're not talking your usual doughnuts either, oh no. These doughnuts are handmade, coming rough and ready with all manner of mouth-watering toppings. We've even got vegan doughnuts, because we've got your backs, you vegan champs.

With stores in the city centres of Manchester, Stockport, Bolton and Bury, these are doughnuts made different. Get yourself along to one of our doughnut shops for the full dipped, dusted and deep-filled experience. You're in for a treat!

Wholesale

Hero: Stock our stuff

H1 – Wholesale Doughnuts

We've already got a number of stockists outside of our stores – including coffee shops and eateries – so why not join the club? You can have our bright, bold and curvaceous buns to add to your store, offering your customers something extra when you bulk buy wholesale doughnuts.

Whether you need bulk doughnuts or a regular wholesale doughnut supplier, chuck your details in our form and we'll get back to you. We're knee-deep in batter at the moment, but we'll be in touch about the doughnuts wholesale process.
